CHILD ABUSE FIEND JAILED

Paedophile monster Webb groomed and raped boy, 14

A MAN has been jailed for 16 years after a court heard he had groomed, sexually abused and raped a 14-year-old boy.

Stephen Webb, 57, of Weston Green, Dagenham, was found guilty of one count of rape of a child under 16 and four counts of indecent sexual assault.

Snaresbrook Crown Court on Monday, November 20, heard he committed the offences against his teenage victim more than 15 years ago.

He also pleaded guilty to three counts of making an indecent video of a child.

Webb used online chatrooms to take advantage of the "vulnerable" victim, who had recently come out as gay to his family.

The victim and his friend, aged 16, agreed to meet Webb at Elm Park underground station, who drove them back to his home, where the victim confided in him about coming out.

Webb assured him he would take care of him and invited the victim to stay at his house.

The victim stayed overnight on several occasions in 1999 and 2000.

Initially there was no sexual contact, and the victim slept on Webb's sofa.

After a while Webb began to sexually assault the boy, asking him to sit on his lap before kissing and assaulting him, or forcing the victim – who police said saw Webb as his "knight in shining armour" – to watch pornography with him, including videos involving children, filmed in Webb's home.

The victim, afraid of upsetting his abuser, eventually agreed to sleep in Webb's bed, where he was sexually abused on a number of occasions. On one occasion Webb pinned the victim down and raped him.

That evening the boy confided in a female friend, who was at the time staying in a spare room, and they left the house.

The victim decided against reporting the incident to the police.

Detective Constable Charlotte Carter said: "The victim saw Webb as a surrogate father figure and someone he could confide in about being gay."

"Webb abused this position of trust to exploit a vulnerable teenager for his own satisfaction."

The victim reported the abuse to police in August 2014 and Webb was arrested the following month.

He told police he did not want to report Webb at the time because he did not want to ruin their relationship.

He had viewed Webb as someone who offered him stability during a chaotic period in his life.

An NSPCC spokesman said: "After winning his victim's trust, Webb went on to exploit his vulnerability and abuse him in the most horrific way."

"Offenders like this rely on guilt, shame and embarrassment to ensure their victim remains silent, but as this case proves, it doesn't have to be that way."

Detective Inspector Keith Ward said: "This conviction is another example of how the passage of time should not be perceived as a barrier to tackling offenders."

"We remain committed to giving victims the chance to come forward and tell us what they have endured so that we can help find them justice."

Webb was acquitted of a further count of raping a child under 16.

CAGED: Stephen Webb, who groomed and raped his 14-year-old victim, was sentenced to 16 years

Win prize packages with Heat Holders

NOW winter is here, the nights are long and there's frost on the ground, we are feeling the chilly bite of the elements on exposed areas such as ears, hands and throat.

Creators of the world's warmest sock, Heat Holders, are experts in comfy, cosy clothing, accessories and homeware.

The original Heat Holders thermal sock has an impressive 2.34 TOG rating, which is warmer than any other sock on the market.

However, the cosy experience doesn't stop at socks – Heat Holders has applied the same thermal technology with a dash of flair to create mix-and-match glove, neckwarmer and hat sets that are the perfect accessory for any outdoor look.

In separate styles for men and women, each item has a British Standard TOG rating, so you can be assured that you'll not only look great but stay comfortable and snug whether at work, rest or play.

Cut to W12 bus route slammed

EAST London's Save Our Buses (SOB) has criticised a decision to cut the frequency of the local W12 bus route by a third.

The route links Walthamstow, Whipps Cross Hospital, Woodford and Wanstead.

The Monday to Saturday service will be cut, from three buses an hour down to two, on Saturday, December 2.

John Darnell of SOB, said: "This cut shows a total disregard for passengers who will spend more time waiting at stops just as winter approaches. Hardest hit will be the most vulnerable bus user and those with reduced mobility."

"We should be improving services not turning the clock back to failed transport policies from 20 years ago."

TFL, said: "To improve reliability and to match demand, we're changing the frequency."

John Darnell, continued: "The rapid decline of this service has been shocking. Passenger numbers have slumped 15 per cent in three years. It's a direct result of traffic delays causing poor reliability."

It's time to send us those scary stories

IT'S that time of year again.

The Yellow Advertiser is launching its annual Christmas ghost story competition.

If you are an aspiring writer living in Essex or east London – and you have a scary story to tell – then get typing.

Book tokens are up for grabs in the adult and children's categories. The top three stories will be published in our first edition of January 2018.

As ghouls have moved into the 21st century, along with the rest of us, judges can only accept stories via email.

The competition is open to schools, so we would like to encourage English departments to take up the challenge to grab the coveted first place for their own literary protégés.

The junior section is open to youngsters aged 16 and under. Entries should be no more than 350 words and emailed to letters@yellowad.co.uk.

The closing date is Sunday, December 10.

Police in hunt for man who touched young girls on buses

OFFICERS from the Met's roads and transport policing command are appealing for information following two sexual offences against young girls on buses.

Just before 9am on Friday, May 5, a 13-year-old girl got onto the 232 bus at North Circular Road in Brent.

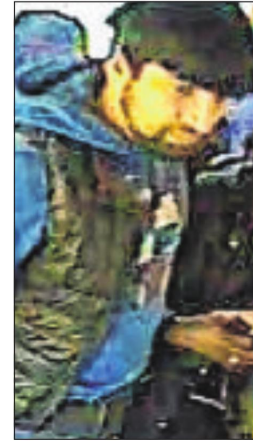

She sat down in front of a man who then sexually touched her.

The victim moved to a different part of the bus and the suspect got off the bus in Coles Green Road.

At 4.05pm on Monday, May 22, a 12-year-old girl got onto a 462 bus on Elmbridge Road, Ilford, heading towards Hainault Street.

As she stood on the bus, which was crowded, she was sexually assaulted.

Investigating officers are linking the two incidents.

APPEAL: A CCTV image of the man police wish to trace

The man is described as being of Asian appearance, in his mid-20s and 6ft.

He has black hair in a bowl style with a thick fringe, and a short beard. He was seen wearing a blue jumper, a black gilet padded jacket and blue jeans.

PC Sarah Bunting, from the roads and traffic policing command, said: "These were frightening experiences for both victims, and we believe that the same person committed these offences."

"We are appealing for anyone who recognises this man to come forward. It is possible that there are other victims who have yet to come forward, and we would urge those people to report these crimes."

"You will be given the appropriate support, and the allegation will be investigated."

Any witnesses or anyone with information should call police on 101, tweet @MetCC or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Graduate animator's joy at third prize in film festival

RISING STAR: Gessami Dato and right, a still from Cloudy

A BARKING and Dagenham College graduate has achieved third place in an international film festival for her animation Cloudy.

Gessami Dato, who lived in Romford while studying, graduated with a first class BA Hons in animation last summer.

Her final year project, Cloudy, was screened earlier this month at OrzlinCorto Film Festival in Italy.

The humorous animation was one of 1,500 entries to the festival.

Miss Gessami said: "I am very pleased that my film was picked to be screened in festivals in Italy, Spain and Argentina. When I was encouraged to enter animation festivals during the course.

"I never dreamed that my animation would get screened or achieve a prize in a festival."

The light-hearted animation features a grandmother called Maya, who employs an ingenious method to rid her would-be sunny garden of intrusive clouds.

Miss Gessami, who has since returned to her home city of Barcelona, was presented with the college's Special Recognition Award when she graduated a year ago.

Donate toys to children in hospital during Christmas

CHRISTMAS is traditionally a time for family.

However, for children in hospital awaiting a procedure or recovering from one, spending the holiday on a ward can be a lonely time.

Not only are they feeling left out of the fun and festivities, they are also away from familiar faces and the comforts of home.

In the run-up to Christmas, the Yellow Advertiser will be collecting toys and gifts for children who will be spending the holiday period in hospital.

Readers and businesses can donate by bringing gifts, which must be new, boxed and unopened, to our offices at Acorn House, Great Oaks, Basildon, SS14 1AH.

Toys can also be taken to Countryside Estates at 205 High Road, Benfleet, SS7

YA readers and businesses can bring gifts to our offices in Basildon, or Countryside Estates in Benfleet and Rayleigh

SHY or 73 Eastwood Road, Rayleigh, SS6 7JN.

Basildon Asda, in Eastgate and Tesco Langdon Hills' community champions have this week generously pledged their stores' support to our campaign.

Recruitment

HMC/IAPS: Co-educational with 930 pupils aged 4-18

Teaching Assistant Full/Part Time Required for January 2018

Chigwell School, a leading co-educational school, seeks to appoint an enthusiastic part time teaching assistant to work in our Senior School. The role will involve working alongside teaching staff in the English department on a part time basis during term time. You will need to be able to work closely as part of a team, be flexible and have excellent communication skills.

Please see school website www.chigwell-school.org (Vacancies) for further details, online or downloadable application forms. Alternatively, please contact the Headmaster's P.A. by telephone: 020 8501 5700 or E-mail: hmpa@chigwell-school.org.

Closing date: 4th December 2017.

Chigwell School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening including checks with past employers and DBS.

HMC/IAPS: Co-educational with 930 pupils aged 4-18

Spanish Teaching Assistant (Part Time/Term Time) Required for January 2018

Chigwell School seeks to appoint a Spanish Teaching Assistant to support pupils and nurture their Spanish conversational skills. The Spanish Foreign Language Assistant will be in charge of preparing students for the oral component of their exam and improve their fluency, vocabulary as well as cultural knowledge. You will have a strong and secure subject knowledge of Spanish culture and language, with the ability to speak Spanish fluently. This is a part time position during term time only.

Please see school website www.chigwell-school.org (Vacancies) for further details, online or downloadable application forms. Alternatively, please contact the Headmaster's P.A. by telephone: 020 8501 5700 or email: hmpa@chigwell-school.org.

Closing date: Friday 1st December 2017.

Chigwell School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening including checks with past employers and DBS.
